

I am ARS wn9ddv. I oppose bandwidth regulation. It is unnecessary. Most radio amateurs do not have the equipment to measure such. This is a gentlemen's service. We do not need more regulation, but rather less. The people putting forth such a proposal want the FCC to solve their "squabble" with others.